October 1, 2005 School has started and International Festival has finished here in Lawton. I've got a great way to save some money this month. I bought up hundreds tapes from a dealer going out-of-business and have put them on sale. Tapes are almost extinct. Here in Southwest Oklahoma, though, many folks are driving cars and trucks that only have tape players. Here's the deal: tapes $2 each or ten tapes for $10. The newspaper will have the ad around the middle of the month. I invite you to come in to the store before then and pick your favorites out from this new supply. Karaoke is still alive and well in Lawton. As always, I appreciate your business. See you soon. Dana Middleton	#8933: Country Hits, Vol. 181 You Ain't Leavin (Thank God Are Ya) I Play Chicken with the Train Be As You Are Texas Redneck Yacht Club Domestic, Light and Cold Billy's got His Beer Goggles On I'll Take That As a Yes Hillbillies Hicktown Somebody's Hero Arlington Don't Ask Me How I Know She Ain't Hooked On Me No More Tequila Makes Her Clothier Fall Off I Play Chick with the Train (duet version) In the store now!
