Dear Karaoke Customers:

G & G Music Company, along with hundreds of karaoke retailers across the country, have been advised of Preliminary Injunction issued against SoundChoice for copyright infringement on dozens of CDG's manufactured, sold and distributed by SoundChoice. Our Company has been instructed to remove certain CDG's from our shelves immediately. Until there is a resolution of this matter, it is possible that we will not have the particular artist or song that you have expected to find in our store or titles that have been printed in our newsletters as available for sale.

First, know that we intend to comply with the injunction immediately and will not offer for sale any of the CDG units that have been identified in the injunction. Just as soon as there is a resolution, we will post an announcement on our website and restock our shelves. Secondly, we do offer other brands of karaoke CDG's that can be special ordered immediately and are not affected by this injunction from the US District Court in Nashville.

We apologize for any inconvenience to our customers and will do everything possible to minimize any delay for the song or artists you need. If you have any question about a title or artists, please do not hesitate to call me. As always, I sincerely appreciate your business for karaoke and other musical instruments and accessories.

Sincerely,

Dana Middleton
